

Save the Date: The Interplay between Assessment And Professional Identity Development in Medical Education

Symposium: 28th and 29th June 2022
University of Bern, Switzerland

How can assessment during medical training support professional identity development? What can medical educators learn from other disciplines?

Eva K. Hennel, Felicitas Lahner, Andrea Lörwald, Rahel Hänggi

This symposium features speakers with backgrounds in medical education, sociology, psychology, and gender studies. We will discuss questions on assessment bias, the reproduction of stereotypes due to assessment and strategies to avoid assessment bias.

The symposium takes place in Bern. Selected talks will be streamed online. Participation is free of charge and registration will open soon.
